National Honor Society chapter formed

A National Honor Society will be organized in the near future at Hondo High School, Principal R. W. Nations announced this week.

Approval of the charter for the "Mary Ethel Hartman Chapter of the National Honor Society" was received last week from the National Association of Secondary School Principals. The Hondo chapter is named for Mrs. Mary Ethel Hartman, high school English teacher and librarian.

Membership in the NHS is limited by national standards to juniors and seniors and will be based on the qualities of scholarship, service, leadership and character. Minimum scholastic average for the membership is a "B" or a grade-point average of 3.00.

Nations hopes the formation of the National Honor Society at Hondo High School will encourage enthusiasm for scholarship among the student body as well as open new avenues for college scholarships for participating members. He feels that the NHS will also recognize those students who consistently rank in the top of their class academically.

Faculty members serving on the committee to initiate the NHS to the high school campus are Nations, Mike Grantham, Benjamin Delgado, Mrs. Gladys Lindeburg and Mrs. Rita Vance. This committee will serve as the chapter council and is charged with the responsibility of electing members to the local chapter.

The NHS chapter is named to honor the scholastic, academic and teaching career of Mrs. M. E. Hartman who has dedicated 39 years of her life to teaching excellence. Mrs. Hartman has served Medina County residents for 37 of those years as a teacher in Yancey, D'Hanis and Hondo. She was a graduate of Ladonia High School, received her BA from East Texas State University, and her MEd from Our Lady of the Lake College where she has also completed work for library certification.

During her 22 years at Hondo High School, she has taught English IV, served as librarian, sponsored the Senior Class, and is presently sponsor of the yearbook.

Mrs. Hartman is married to Frank Hartman, son of a pioneer Medina County family. They have one son, John Charles. The Hartman family is a member of the United Methodist Church of Hondo.

Active in the Wesleyan Service Guild, Mrs. Hartman also holds a life membership in the PTA and is a charter member of Gamma Upsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an organization for women teachers.

November promotion planned

Retail merchants of Hondo gathered Tuesday night and voted to sponsor a big, city-wide promotion on November 18-19-20.

Title of the promotion is yet to come, but the theme is one Hondoans and area residents will like--money saving buys.

Plans call for registering by all who wish to do so and then a drawing for big cash prizes on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20.

Some 75 people turned out for the Tuesday night event in the McDowell Cafeteria. They enjoyed a barbecue catered by K&B Drive In and heard Eugene Whitmore of Lockhart present a fine talk on retailing and advertising.

"The one main point I would like to get across," Whitmore said, "is that no one or two stores can go it alone. To prevent your town from decaying by keeping your shoppers at home, all the merchants have to join hands in a concentrated effort."

Some 23 merchants present Tuesday night pledged $15 each to go into a kitty for prizes. And they left it open to any other merchant in town to join in this promotion. A committee, chaired by Mrs. Jim (Nancy) Fridle, will contact others and at the same time establish the ground rules for the upcoming promotion.

Area residents may listen to KRME and read the Anvil Herald next week for all details on this promotion that will be designed to offer them savings on quality merchandise.

CONFRONTATION

... Owl Quarterback Tom Hill (10) is about to meet head-on with big, 210-pound Wayne Iltis (70), the Panthers' tough tackle and linebacker. Iltis turned in a fine performance Friday night, getting in on numerous tackles.

Friday tussle could be it!!

Friday night's tussle on Barry Field with the Southwest Dragons promises to be a tough one, but the Hondo Owls have all the incentive in the world to win.

A victory will give them undisputed claim to the 28-AA district crown and the opportunity to go into the playoffs.

Southwest, picked to be one of the toughest teams in the league in pre-season polls, have played hot and cold all season. They have won 5, lost 2 and tied one over the year, and their district records stands at 3-2.

"Won and lost records are not the true gauge," cautions Owl Coach Nelson Bippert. "The Dragons have the personnel, and when they put it all together, they are a tough team to beat."

Southwest can score as their 202 points for the year, second only to Devine's 247, quickly shows. Hondo has scored 194 points. They stand third in district, with their 127 points placing them behind Hondo, 146, and Devine, 138.

Ironically, the Dragon with the most zip as far as scoring is concerned is not even listed as a regular starter. Gordon Deskin has scored 8 touchdowns this year for 48 points; with 30 of those points coming in district play.

Defense-wise the Dragons have been rather stingy. Eight opponents have scored only 48 points while in district play they have allowed only 28. The Owls have given up 73 points for the year and 25 in district.

Southwest operates from a Wishbone formation with a split end. Once they are in Please Turn To Page 3

New 20-unit motel now open

Hondo's newest motel, the modern Whitetail Lodge, is now open for business and on Tuesday night of this week enjoyed full occupancy.

This approximately $140,000 facility will be managed by Mr. and Mrs. John Melton. It is a joint venture of some 17 local and area residents who pooled their money to provide a facility offering comfort to its guests. The management says visitors are welcome to come and give the motel a look-see.

BY BURNIS K. LAWRENCE

PROMISING TO BE ...

... a great asset to the City of Hondo is the new, modern motel, the Whitetail Lodge. This facility adds 20 first class units to the housing picture in Hondo, something that is sorely needed.

And despite the hassle right now about purchasing, I feel the new motel in time will prove to be a greater asset to the city, even to the point of expanding.

Building a motel is a venture into the unknown, if one wants to examine it closely. So it takes a little bit of courage to put up just some of the good long green and then hock yourself for a lot more of the same to provide such a facility in a town the size of Hondo.

Yet, that is what some 17 persons have done in building the Whitetail Lodge. So, I for one, wish them the best of luck. May they pull paying customers like ants to a syrup bucket. That will mean that someone else in town is reaping some benefit also.

About purchasing. I think my views are well known; so well known in fact to the point that I have people explain to me why they had to buy things out of town. So I will just close this topic by saying: "Let's all check closely before we head the buggy toward that city to the east. Perhaps our local merchants will have just what you want. You'll never know without checking."

A RETAIL PROMOTION ...

... that everyone should keep in mind will be the big pre-Christmas event slated in Hondo for November 18-19-20. Merchants in Hondo are getting together a promotion sale that will help you save some of that hard-earned money.

Remember those dates--November 18-19-20. And remember the town--HONDO.

THE HALLOWEEN ...

... carnival was something, wasn't it? And I am certain that there will be some costume winners who are sorely disappointed this week. We took six rolls of pictures Friday night, Saturday afternoon, Saturday night and Sunday morning--and would you believe the one that had all the kids gathered to cleanup the city and the costume winners on it came out clear as a whistle--and that spells bad news in the picture taking business. Jimmy Overstreet and I have not figured out what went wrong--but it did. So all we can do is apologize to the cleanup crews and the costume winners--

Local trio arrested charged

Charges of possession of marijuana and possession of paraphernalia were filed on three Hondo residents Saturday night after they were arrested by City Policemen.

Free on $3,000 bonds are Mitch Thomas Weynand, 19; Damon Larry Westbrook, 20; and Russell Clyde Hermes, 20, all of Hondo.

The three were arrested Saturday about 8:30 p.m. after Hondo City police officers stopped their car in the 1900 block of Avenue R. They were released under individual bonds.

Hop little bunny

Who would bring a rabbit to a Halloween Carnival? Mr. and Mrs. David Barrios, Sr. did, and little one-year and three months old David Barrios, Jr. made a hit all night long. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Barrios of Hondo.

Pecan Show plans savory servings

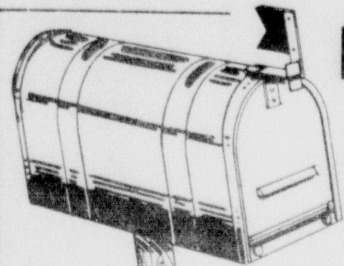

It is almost certain that a delicious array of foods featuring pecans will be the mouth-watering feature of the second annual Winter Garden area pecan show to be held December 7-8 in Hondo City Hall.

Contestants in the pecan baking show are required to send their recipes to the county extension office, Box 445, Hondo, with entry form by November 19.

It is planned to publish the recipes and distribute them at the show ... and all entries, recipes and containers will become the property of the Medina County Home

Letters from the mailbox

To the editor:

After having read Mr. Wally Porter's letter in last week's Anvil Herald, we would like as individuals to say "Bravo" to Mr. Porter for speaking out in support of Hondo Industries, and particularly, for Universal-Rundle Corporation.

We deeply appreciate the employment of local people in this plant, and are thankful to Universal-Rundle for having sent to Hondo the wonderful families who have worked so diligently in every phase of community life - church, school and civic affairs.

We realize that a list of the contributions from Universal-Rundle in time, money and products would be impossible to enumerate in its entirety, but we would like to list a few of the many contributions that we know of to "refresh the memory" of the people of our town:

Donation of Harry Haltman Field, plus donation of bathroom fixtures for the Little League field and pony league field.

Donation of fixtures for D'Hanis baseball field.

Donation of fixtures for Camp Mary Louise.

Donation of fixtures for Boy Scout Camp.

Donation of fixtures for Golf Club.

Donations to the Volunteer Fire Department.

Generous donations through a charity organization for our recent flood victims, both from the local plant and from the Pennsylvania plant.

In terms of good works achieved, Universal-Rundle Corporation is a tremendous asset to our community, and we are proud to have the facility in Hondo.

Parents Stamp Out Drug Abuse With Facts

By Jerry Williamson
Chief Of Police
City of Hondo

Today's Subject: Drug Abuse and the Crime Rate Closely Related

A New York study shows that 70% of the inmates in the city's jails were heroin addicts! A Superior Court Judge in the District of Columbia said that 75-85% of those brought before him on criminal matters, not connected with family matters, are users of narcotics! This country is in a deadly struggle with international drug traffic and right now we are losing that battle! Drug addiction today kills thousands, ruins nearly half a million lives and drains off about 8 BILLION dollars a year from our national economy! (Most states have less money than that in their entire budget for a year's spending on everything).

Considering the fact that true drug addicts are usually in no condition mentally or physically to hold down a regular job, it would seem obvious that the magnitude of the national crime increase is certainly partially due to the over all drug problem. It is a known fact, from case studies conducted on drug addicts, that they most usually turn to theft of one kind or another to support their habits. If you are not able to work, but need $50-$100 each day to buy drugs, (or more), you have to do something to obtain funds and, unless you're born wealthy, this usually puts the addict in the position of having to steal.

It is difficult to pin-point which crimes are really connected with or entirely due to drug abuse or addiction, for various reasons:

A. A person under arrest as a suspect in a crime will sometimes want to have authorities believe the crime was committed under the influence of drugs, in the hope that punishment will be lighter.

B. Conversely, those who are not actually under the influence of a drug at the time of arrest, may want to hide the true reason for their crime because if the fact were known it might lead to their drug source of supply and thereby cut them off.

C. The true drug addict has little, if any, regard for law and order. In his state of mental confusion he is not able nor willing to help authorities to help him out of the problem he himself has created. Therefore, what he tells police authorities about why he committed a crime must be carefully analyzed to determine truth and fiction.

Authorities in every part of the country try to determine if drugs have a connection with each crime investigation they handle. All statistics point to a positive conclusion, that drug-connected crimes committed have increased tremendously in the past 10 years. The drug abuse problem has been around a long time, but during the past 10 years it has shown a marked increase to alarming heights. Since 1960 the increase in crime over the nation has reached the catastrophic figure of 176%, according to F.B.I. statistics. With both drug abuse and crime rising at such rates it is not difficult to see the connection, even for those who do not have access to police records.

Therefore, in teaching children EARLY in life the facts about drug use, abuse and addiction, it is safe to say you are not only helping them avoid the tragedy of drug addiction, but most probably you are helping them avoid a life which would be continually endangering their personal freedom and self respect.

Be with me in this column next week for more interesting discussion on the national drug disaster.

High school seniors have scholarship opportunity

KINGSVILLE--High school seniors planning to enter college in the fall of 1972 should apply now for the 1,003 four-year Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) scholarships to be awarded by the Army this fall, announced Lt. Col. Donald L. Williams, professor of military science at Texas A&I University.

Valid at any of the 282 colleges and universities offering the four-year Army ROTC program, the scholarships pay for tuition, textbooks, and lab fees for four academic years and provide a $50-per-month subsistence allowance.

The scholarship will also provide each cadet with an amount equal to one-half the basic pay of a second lieutenant during his six-week advanced camp, normally attended between junior and senior college years.

The application for Army ROTC scholarships ends Dec. 31. Interested high school seniors should schedule the SAT or ACT tests early enough to meet this deadline.

The scholarship winners may pursue any course of study leading to a baccalaureate degree, with the exception of theology.

General requirements for ROTC scholarship students are:

Be of 17 years of age by Oct. 1 of the year in which the scholarship becomes effective.
Be able to complete all requirements for a commission and a college degree, and be less than 25 years of age on June 30 of the year of eligibility for appointment as an officer.

Serve as an active-duty Army officer for four years following graduation from college.

Winner selections are based upon academic excellence, extra-curricular activities, physical standards, Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or American College Testing Program (ACT) results and evaluation of motivation and leadership potential following the student's appearance before a board of officers.

For further information about the Army ROTC four-year scholarship program the student can contact his high school guidance counselor.

Scholarship applications can be obtained by writing to Army ROTC, Ft. Monroe, Virginia 23351.

Residents of the south Texas area may send inquiries to Lt. Col. Williams, Professor of Military Science, Texas A&I University, Kingsville, 78363, for additional information.

Local business

Newspaper is partner to hometown dealer

The hometown dealer, who represents a giant national manufacturer, has the help of a partner that makes it possible for him to stay in business in spite of centralization of many retail outlets.

The partner of the small dealer is the community newspaper. For more than any other institution, the newspaper has a part in the continued survival of small city dealers.

As the major force which works to build and maintain a trade area, the local newspaper gives the small dealer its basis for existence. Through the newspaper the people of a community are constantly reminded that they can obtain all brands of goods in their hometown.

Of course it would be less trouble and more efficient for the big manufacturers to maintain a few dealerships in major cities. Apparently, some manufacturers have attempted to encourage such a trend by concentrating national advertising in metropolitan newspapers, magazines and other general media.

Fortunately for small dealers, the policy has been a failure. Sales volume has significantly dropped when manufacturers have attempted to centralize all national advertising.

Regional advertising does not finalize sales in the local community. The public simply reduces its buying when advertising is reduced on the local level. Thus, both manufacturer and the small dealer suffer when community newspapers do not carry a share of national advertising. And that is why the small dealer is justified in insisting that his national advertising allocation be spent in his own community newspaper.

Volunteers to make house-to-house drive

Some 67 volunteers will conduct a house-to-house march to collect funds to support research on progressive muscular dystrophy in Hondo. Henry Martin Finger with the Hondo National Bank will serve as campaign treasurer.

Muscular Dystrophy is presently an incurable, slowly progressive and usually fatal disease which afflicts about 200,000 in the nation. About two-thirds of these are children. In their case average life expectancy is about twelve years after the onset of the disease.

A research breakthrough by scientists at the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America Research Center, the Institute for Muscle Disease, has provided, for the first time, a successful treatment for hereditary muscular dystrophy in experimental animals.

The Hondo house-to-house march is one of a number of special campaigns being conducted throughout the nation in effort to provide funds for making within the shortest possible time, the sometimes difficult transition from successful treatment of experimental animals to a both safe and successful treatment for human patients.

The timely achievement of this goal is of particularly urgency from the standpoint of Texas muscular dystrophy patients.

In the later stages of the disease.

Funds are also urgently needed for special medical attention directed at maintaining patients in the best possible general physical condition in hope that effective treatment will soon be a reality. Recent research advances in the very early detection of muscular dystrophy provide hope that treatment during incipient stages may considerably prolong the period during which the human dystrophy patient may be responsive to beneficial therapy, if and when it is developed.

FOOTBALL . . .

. . . is the main topic of conversation around these parts right now. And we cover a lot of it in the Anvil Herald. But, football fans, we hear from those who have not been convinced that football is king in Hondo. Hardly a week goes by that someone doesn't tell me I had too much about football and not enough about this or that. So when you read and see the Owls in the Herald please remember we take a few lumps getting them there.
On this subject, I would like to give special thanks to young James Overstreet for his excellent pictorial coverage of Owl football this year. Jimmy takes other pictures for us, but he really covers the games. And his excellent shots and darkroom work has added greatly to the interest for Owl football this year. I would hope that the team appreciate his efforts.

But they are here--and a check right now can be classified as excellent "fire insurance".

WHAT WOMEN . . .

And only a couple of weeks ago our Waelder editor Mrs. Ruby Alford sent me a clipping which read: "A person who thinks he is perfect surely must get tired of doing nothing."
And to answer these two, I repeat: "I might not always be right, but I'm never wrong."
Now, where in the world could they get such ideas!!

side the 20-yard line, they will bring both ends in tight.
QB Charlie Guzman, 160, handles the man-under chores in creditable fashion, and "he can pass" says the Owl scouting report. Full-back Emilio Soliz, 205, is listed as the strongest runner on the Dragon squad.
Southwest boasts some beef in the line with three on the forward wall going over 200 pounds. Guard Ben Perez hits 200 even; tackle Alfred Guidry stops at 210; and tackle Nick Constanzo tops 215.
The probable starting line-up reads: Guzman (18), quarterback, 160; Arthur Grejeda (20), tight end, 170; Charles Squires (22), back, 172; Soliz (33), fullback, 205; Rodney Livingston (44), half-back, 184; Roy Chavera (55), center, 170; Rhomas Menchaca (67), left guard, 170; Perez (68), right guard, 200; Constanzo (77), tackle, 215; Guidry (78), tackle, 210; Hector Ruiz (82), end, 160.

Coach Bippert said Monday he has some doubtful players on the Owl team following Friday night's battle with Medina Valley. Both Nick Turner and Terry Mechler are very doubtful because of knee injuries.
To replace Mechler on defense, Bippert has moved Fred Bader to the end position. Jose Cadena fills in on Turner's defensive halfback slot.

Each entry must consist of 45 nuts of the 1971 crop, and must be placed in the show by noon December 7, marked with the grower's name, address and variety.
Growers are limited to one entry in each of the improved or papershell varieties, but as many entries of native or seedling varieties as desired. All nuts will become the property of the show committee and will not be returned.
First, second and third place entries will receive handsome plaques and rosettes and will be entered in the Regional Show in San Antonio.

United Gas reports revenues

United Gas, Inc. today reported operating revenues for the quarter ended September 30, 1971 of $15,975,000, an increase of $2,236,000 over revenues of $13,739,000 during the same quarter in 1970. Net loss for the quarter after interest and Federal income tax was $616,000 as compared to a net loss of $525,000 for the same period in 1970.
However, according to Sam J. Jeffrey, financial vice-president of the company, quarterly figures are not indicative of annual earnings since the bulk of the company's gas sales are made during the winter months. Net income for the twelve months ended September 30, 1971 totaled $6,213,000. During this same period, operating revenues rose from $82,104,000 to $87,836,000, an increase of $5,732,000.

The common stock of United Gas, Inc. is listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

The modern washday work saver: an electric dryer

An automatic electric clothes dryer (2 to 1 choice of American Women) can take the work out of washday and keep the press in permanent press. Newest models offer temperature selection, automatic cooldown to minimize wrinkles, fluff cycle for airing without heat, electronic controls that sense the moisture in the load and know when to stop. Some have a signal to tell you when drying is done. If rewiring your home, be sure to include a separate 240-volt circuit for an electric dryer. It costs less to buy, and it lets you bring "sunshine" indoors. See your favorite local appliance dealer today.

That's all she wrote

by Edna McDade

If "An apple a day keeps the doctor away," Dr. W. S. DUTY might not have to put in so much time in the future solving the assorted hitches in my gitalong that inevitably crop out as time goes by.

This is sure-enough apple country and my appetite is adjusting to some new varieties I'd never even heard of in our part of Texas. I can remember when fresh fruit along the border was a holiday treat and apples and oranges always represented the bulges in our Christmas stockings.

Here roadside stands offer such varieties as Macouns, Northern Spy, Greening, Twenty-Ounce, McIntosh and Cortland and, everywhere, the big red and yellow Delicious apples. Orchards offer the fruit in every packaging from a dozen to huge bins (I don't know what else to call them) holding from 500 to a thousand pounds or more. And the fresh apple cider, without preservatives, and icy cold is a real treat. I must remember to drink some to the health of all you-all.

Mandatory for first-time hunters, 14 years or older, in New York state are Hunters Training Courses. Classes are held in area schools and licenses are not issued to the first-timers until they complete the course. Sounds like a good, sensible law to me especially when one considers the death toll every season from trigger-happy, inexperienced hunters.

The 24-day season on ringnecked pheasants is still open. NY law does not allow hunting any game on Sundays. I saw a beautiful cock pheasant strolling through our back yard just after I arrived. He looked exactly like the one that I used to listen and watch for while I was in Lancaster not too long ago. Wonder if he followed me here?

"Little sisters", I've decided, are born so that "big sisters" can brag about them. The fact that they are later models gives them a plus advantage.

I believe my friend, HELENE WOLLSCHLAGER of Hondo (that busy individual who goes about busily but quietly doing good for so many) will agree with me. Her "little sister" is Dr. META BROWN, a scientist, who, for 30 years, has been working in genetics at Texas A&M University, for the improvement of cotton. Dr. Brown has a Ph.D and worked for a whole year without pay under the guidance of Dr. James O. Beasley who was the first person to do wild species hybrids of cotton.

Dr. Brown's picture appeared on the cover of the July Progressive Farmer and the cover story was by John McKinney.

Big Sister Helene is very, very proud of "Meta" and justly so. And, I feel very sure that Dr. Brown takes pride in the accomplishments of Mrs. Woolschlagel who is giving her life in mission service.

Halloween here is very special for the under-9 set and there was no rowdiness or trick-or-treating by the much, much bigger crowd as there often is too-too much of in Hondo.

I spent a pleasant morning making special cookies (witches, brooms, bats, owls and cats, decorated to suit) and the delight of the small folk was reward enough. John and I also packaged almost a hundred bags of wrapped candy to distribute so "a good time was had by all".

While I was at the postoffice last week, mailing a package "back home" a man standing in line heard "Hondo" and said, "Say, isn't that what they claim is God's country?" I did not get his name but he said that an uncle had mailed him one of our CoFC cards. He added "God must get around pretty much because folks here claim THIS is God's country" -- as indeed it is and never lovelier than in this fall season, I'm sure.

If anyone is interested in knowing what a farm is, the Waupon (Wisc) Leader News defines it thus: "It's what a city man dreams of at 5 p.m. but never at 5 a.m."

Now, that we've gone back to DST, he can dream an extra hour.

Having a good time made it a popular event. This is just a portion of the people who visited, strolled, ate hot dogs, tamales, bunelos, chili in a bag, corn-on-the-cob and enjoyed games while chewing candy apples. Kids from eight (and younger) to eighty (maybe older) turned out for a "good, good time."

The St. John's Parent-Teacher Congress members did themselves proud Saturday night when they revived the Halloween Carnival in Hondo. High interest and good attendance

Bud Woolls elected president

Election of officers highlighted the Monday meeting of the Hondo Chamber of Commerce, with directors selecting Newell (Bud) Woolls to direct 1972 activities as president.

Aiding Woolls in these efforts will be Henry C. Nienhoefer, vice president; and George Brucks, treasurer.

Four new directors also were introduced at the meeting, having just been elected by membership ballot. They are Bruce Foster, Henry Martin Finger, Kenneth Flory and Robert Van deWalle. Discussion on the annual CofC banquet, scheduled for Monday, Dec. 6, in the McDowell School cafeteria, resulted in setting a price of $3 per ticket.

U.S. Senator John Tower has accepted an invitation to be the principal speaker at the banquet which also features the presentation of the Outstanding Citizen, the Outstanding Farmer-Rancher in the Hondo area and the Outstanding Farmer-Rancher of Medina County. The latter presentation is made by the Soil Conservation District.

This year special tribute will be paid to an individual under the title of Special Mention for Outstanding Service. It will mark the first time such recognition has been given.

Additional discussion covered the Wild Game Dinner set for the Hondo City Park on Saturday, November 20. And an appeal was made for deer meat from persons who wish to contribute. Anyone who has a deer to contribute should call Bud Woolls at Meyer Elementary School or Harry Filleman at the Chamber office. Deer must be dressed before they can be stored at Super Sav.

Ramsey is a widely-known Kerr County rancher, sportsman and game hunter who will demonstrate the art of "buck rattling" using a pair of deer antlers; he also will show a color film on exotic game. Ramsey is also noted for his very interesting tales of game hunting in South Texas and other areas.

Hondo teams make 'clean sweep' week

Both the Hondo Freshmen and "B" Teams posted shut-out wins over Medina Valley teams Thursday night at Barry Field.

The Freshmen won their sixth game of the season against only a loss and a tie as they rolled to a 22-0 victory.

Mike Groff threw two touchdown passes and Lonnie Rodriguez ran for the other touchdown.

Groff threw 50 yards to Simon Arcos and then tossed a 25-yard pass to Raul Dominguez.

In the "B" Team's 28-0 win over Medina Valley, Doug Helvey caught a pair of touchdown passes, one from James Prescott and one from Brian Finger. Both Gordy Bohmfaik and Gene McAnelly scored on short runs.

The win reversed a season opening 7-6 loss to Medina Valley.

Sanchez charged

Domingo Sanchez of Hondo was charged during the weekend with "discharging a firearm within the city limits".

Police responded to a call Saturday night in the 1500 block of Avenue C after shooting broke out in the neighborhood.

When they arrived they found Sanchez with a loaded weapon. Officers said they finally talked him into dropping the weapon and made the arrest. No one was injured.

INTENT PLAYERS

... James Batteau (84) and Terry Mechler (81) keep their eyes on the playing field even though they are on the bench against the Panthers. Mechler hurt his knee on the first play of the game. Batteau turned in a good game.

28-AA

Hondo

The big news in the district as far as Owl fans are concerned is the fact Hondo cinched at least a tie for the District title by whipping Medina Valley 21-7. One win out of the two remaining games, Southwest and Poteet, will give the crown to the Owls.

Southwest

The Dragons blitzed Cottulla 30-0 to set up their clash with Hondo Friday night. They racked up 22 points in the third period in gaining their fifth win of the year against two losses and one tie. They stand 3-2 in district play.

Pearsall

Pearsall's on-again-off-again Mavericks whipped Devine 14-7 to knock the Warhorses out of contention in the district race. Both teams stand 3-2 in the district.

Carrizo Springs

Poteet took it on the chin again, losing to Carrizo 24-

12. The Aggies now stand 0-8 for the season and 0-5 for the district. Carrizo, defending district champions, stands 2-3 in District.

That's a beauty

No wonder Larry Winkler has a grin on his face a mile wide. That buck has a 39-inch spread, and in anybody's language that's a beauty of a buck. It is 7 inches around the base. The fine buck was killed northwest of Cortez, Colorado. On the hunt were Walter, Jack, Jackie and Larry Winkler and Olen and Franklin Wiemers.

Junior livestock meet

A meeting of the Medina County Junior Livestock Association has been called for 7:30 p.m. November 10 in the District Courtroom in Hondo, president John C. Biediger announced.

The directors will appoint stock show committees; decide on judges and sifting committees; discuss advertising, concession bids; and distribute advertising catalogues to the directors.

Other items of business will also be discussed and all directors are urged to attend. The public is also invited.

Cuties take contest

Five winners were named in the Costume Contest staged at the Halloween Carnival Saturday night.

Judges had a difficult time selecting five winners from the approximately 150 youngsters who came all dressed up.

Winners included: Pirate--Rusty Ul-brich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Ulbrich; Raggedy Ann--Yvette Rodriguez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnulfo Rodriguez; Witch--Melissa Campos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Campos; Ghost--Joseph Cox; and Pixie--Lily Cox, both the children of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cox.

Harmon explains how he selects top twenty teams

"Letters ... we get letters!" Yes, we do! And most of them relate to our ratings of our Top Twenty teams. To explain again: a team's rating is based on its power quotient, not on games won and lost. This is nothing more than the average of its past performance against all opposition. Each of the 640 football teams that we follow receives an adjusted rating each week. This explains why Michigan, for example, can be #1 one week, #3 another week, etc. Although they remain undefeated, their power quotient fluctuates from week to week.

But - the teams in our Top 20 are not all of the major undefeated teams. Calibre of competition prevents some, such as Dartmouth and Toledo, for example, from regularly establishing a strong enough power rating. However, 31-game winner Toledo is very close.

And, as in the case of Southern California, rated 14th, a team can be a three or four-time loser and still be ranked in our top group. The Trojans have lost four games, three of them to teams in our Top 20 -- Alabama, Oklahoma and Stanford. Based on their power quotient, they would have to rate as a favorite against 80% of the major teams in the country.

So ... it's just our way of mathematically speculating on the relative power of college football teams. We can be as wrong as anyone (and we are - 25% of the time!), but we feel it's as reliable a system as any in determining winners and losers.

And it's time to look at winners and losers for this Saturday. The football spotlight focuses on one game in particular -- Alabama, ranked #3, meets L.S.U., rated 15th. The Crimson Tide is 8 and 0, while L.S.U.

is 6 and 2. Another loss for the Tigers who were caught napping last week against Mississippi will eliminate them from the Southeast Conference title race. This seems to be an Alabama year, so we're picking the Tide to beat L.S.U. The spread would be 10 points.

Number One and Number Two, Nebraska and Oldahoma, will remain undefeated as they approach their Thanksgiving Day finale. The cornhuskers will subdue Iowa State by 29 points, and the Sooners will whip Missouri by 42.

Iowa will find things quite discouraging against 4th-ranked Michigan. The Wolves will bury the Hawks by 39 points. Penn State, #5, is 38 points stronger than Maryland.

24-hour patrol given city

Hondo will now have police protection on an around the clock basis for the first time in the history of the City.

The 24-hour patrol starts when new police officer Nino Martinez joins the regular patrol schedule. Martinez joined the department last month but has been in a training period prior to this week.

Chief of Police Jerry Williamson said the department had worked 24-hour duty before this week, but this marked the first time the City would have regular 24-hour patrol duty.

Martinez came to Hondo from Castroville where he had gained experience in the law enforcement field.

HOLD IT, PANTHER!

... Owl Eric Grant (86) begins a tackle on Panther Mickey Conrad (47) in the Hondo-Medina Valley game. Conrad gave the Owl fans a big scare when he took the initial kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown.

1972 schedule listed

Opponents for the Hondo Owls' 1972 football season have been announced by Coach Nelson Bippert.

Gone is Del Rio who has provided the opening action for the past several years. The Wildcats go into 4-A ball, and they will be replaced by Floresville as an opener on September 8.

The 1972 schedule features something Hondo has not had for some time now, an open date on October 20.

Since District 28-AA lost both Southwest (to Triple-A) and Potet (to District 27-AA) and gained only Dilley, it means an extra non-conference game. This will be filled by St. Gerards on September 29.

The 1972 gridiron season features six home games since St. Gerards will play here two years in a row.

Full schedule for 1972 includes (with * denoting district games): Sept. 8--Floresville, there; Sept. 15--Uvalde, here; Sept. 22--Samuel Clemens, here; Sept. 29--St. Gerards, here; Oct. 7--Cotulla, here; Oct. 13--Medina Valley, here; Oct. 20--Open; Oct. 27--Devine, here; Nov. 3--Carrizo Springs, there; Nov. 10--Pearsall, there; and Nov. 17--Dilley, there.

Tread softly, but Owls could meet Ro-Hawks

Sh-h-h! Don't say it out loud, but Hondo could well be in another bi-district playoff battle with their old foes, the Randolph Ro-Hawks. Or it seems Randolph has the upper hand in District 27-AA at this time.

Nobody is talking right now, for as Coach Nelson Bippert says, "We haven't won the district yet."

And before fans start crowing, a look at the standings will prove him right and provide some sobering thought.

If Hondo beats Southwest Friday night at Barry Field, then the crown is clinched and look out, Ro-Hawks!

But, let the oblong ball bounce crooked and the Dragons go home victorious.

Then comes Potet who hasn't won a game.

A cinch, Owl fans will exult! But stop a moment. Texas A&M told Arkansas they were going to win and the Hoggies thought it was just another Aggie joke. Until it was too late, that is.

And the Dallas Cowboys were picked to beat New Orleans and Chicago. What happened? That ball bounced crooked and they came out on the little end of the score. Both times.

Now if this were to happen (just supposing, grant you) to the Owls who would represent the district? You guess it--Southwest.

So the moral of this story is--don't crow yet. The dawn is still sometime away.

Owls whip Panthers 21-7 to cinch tie in district

Finally overcoming the electrifying shock of Mickey Conrad's 100-yard touchdown runback of the initial kickoff, the Hondo Owls changed the scoreboard three times to take a 21-7 win over the battling Medina Valley Panthers.

Hondo scored in the second and third quarters to send Owl fans home in a frenzied state, since the win cinched at least a tie for the District 28-AA crown for Hondo.

But that was way after the initial kickoff which Conrad took on about his four-yard line, bobbled, retreated to about the goal line and then began a mad dash up the sideline. Two good blocks put him into the clear zone and he went into the six-point territory untouched. Joe Salinas added the extra point and Panther fans went wild.

On the other side very little could be heard from Owl fans. They sat stunned, thinking this might just give Medina Valley the needed impetus to upset their favorites.

And it took Hondo until the second quarter to bring their followers out of that trance. But in the second quarter, the Owls cranked up two long drives and went to the dressing room with a 14-7 margin.

The first scoring drive went 63 yards with Lonnie Knowles blasting over from the one-yard line. Hill kicked his first of three extra points for the night and it was a brand-new ball game.

Late in the second quarter a booming Panther punt was ruled dead on the Owl four-yard line and the Owls had 96 yards of well defended terra firma between them and the goal line and about three minutes to get there.

But get there they did as Tom Hill took to the air and ground to reach paydirt. James Batteau and Eric Grant proved to be the heroes. Batteau took a pass early in the drive to chalk up a first down and provide the momentum the Owls needed in this drive. Eric Grant climaxed the drive by grabbing an 18-yard Hill aerial in the end-zone for six points. Hill kicked and the Owl fans let out the air they had held since Conrad's run.

Fullback Johnny Abrego, who turned in his best performance of the year, put the icing on the cake in the third quarter with a 68-yard up-the-middle run that added six points.

Medina Valley keyed on Keith Ligon, who sat out most of the game with an injured leg, and Abrego ripped through the line for good gains all night.

On this run he burst through the middle and outraced the secondary with one exception. But he received cool-headed, outstanding help from Tomas Barrios to make it all the way.

Barrios was trailing the only man who could catch Abrego and every Owl fan in the stands and standing along the sidelines could already hear the whistle signaling a clip. And Panther fans were hoping.

But Barrios played it like a veteran. He gave the afterburner a slight push and pulled up far enough that he could work his right shoulder around the front of the Panther runner and tumble him on about the 20-yard line. Abrego steamed in untouched.

Hill added the point and that ended the scoring.

Lonnie Knowles also turned in a quick-thinking effort late in the fourth quarter when he intercepted a Panther pass in the end zone.

He went high in the air and came down with the ball about one foot inside the goal line. And it looked like he had the room to run, but he wisely dropped to one knee to bring on a touchback and give the Owls the ball on the 20.

The Owl defense looked real sharp most of the night. They held Medina Valley to 16 yards on the ground in the first half. James Batteau enjoyed a good night both offensively and defensively.

And the regular stalwarts of the defensive wall came through with fine performances. Joe Schueling, Gordon Wiemers, Kurt Leinweber and Mark Buescher joined the others in "sticking the Panthers" all night long.

One of the stellar defensive plays of the night was a 60-yard quick kick by Abrego.

Three Owls received injuries during the game. Terry Mechler limped off the field with an injured leg on the first play of game where Conrad stunned Owl fans. Nick Turner hurt his knee and Keith Ligon re-hurt his ankle.

Statistics (unofficial of course) showed the Owls dominated the game. They read (Hondo first):

First Downs--10, 12; Yards Rushing--251, 138; Yards Passing--78, 73; Passes--3-6-2, 4-13-1; Punts--6-39, 7-33; Fumbles Lost--0-1; Yards Penalized--25, 29.

Fine spread

Man, look at those antlers on the two bucks these Hondo men brought back from Colorado! E. J. Chapa, right, Johnny Morin, right and R. J. Chapa, E. J.'s brother from McAllen, left Hondo Saturday, drove to Garland, Colorado, killed these two fine specimen and were back in Hondo Tuesday noon. R. J. did not get in the picture with his 11-point buck. (Photo by Tony Mendoza)

While his ship was operating with the U.S. Sixth Fleet, he visited France, Spain, Greece and Tunisia, and participated in anti-submarine, anti-air and surface warfare practice exercises at sea.

This is one of the Texas courthouses, a disappearing breed. On the average, two burn or are torn down each year.
